WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL TEAM ADDS
5TH PLAYER TO RECRUITING LIST

MISSOULA--

Mary Klueber (pronounced Cloo-Burr), a 5-9 southpaw from Anchorage, Alaska, is the fifth and final recruit for the University of Montana women's volleyball team.

Klueber, from Bartlett High School in Anchorage, is an outside hitter.

"Mary is a talented hitter, who needs work on her overall play," said coach Dick Scott, "She has excellent potential. She has a good vertical jump, and can hang in the air for a long time, a very good skill in volleyball. She will be one of the better jumpers on the team."
